A large, stylized green plant with several broad leaves dominates the background. At the base of the plant, there is a small, dark, cylindrical object with a white spiral pattern, possibly a mechanical part or a small robot. The overall scene is set against a dark, shadowy background.

A green-tinted illustration showing a car from a side-rear perspective, having just crashed into a wall. The car is dark-colored and is surrounded by a cloud of dust or smoke. The background consists of several horizontal green lines, suggesting a road or a landscape. The overall style is that of a comic book panel.
